OLD PAPERS.

Good conditioned old papers for sale at this office at only 40 cents per hundred.

CITY IN BRIEF.

The new State-house cost the State $24,497.16 during the month of April.

The young ladies of Christ Church gave a "coffee" last evening in the Chapel.

The letter box at the corner of Morris street and Kentucky avenue is broken to pieces.

The Little Sisters of the Poor want their institution connected to the Massachusetts avenue sewer.

West Indianapolis saloons pay a town license of $100, and there are only three saloons in the town.

There will be a lunch served in Christ Church chapel between 11:30 a. m. and 2 p. m. to-day, by the young ladies.

The Female Reformatory yesterday drew $2,282.91, and the Deaf and Dumb Asylum $4,577.47 from the State Treasury.

It is stated that H. Bamberger will be a candidate for School Commissioner in place of Charles Smith, who declines to make the race again.

The elegant banner which will be donated to the coming fair for the benefit of the St. Vincent's Hospital was painted by Miss Louisa Lockwood.

The El River Valley Horse Association of Wabash County filed articles of association yesterday. Stock $4,000. There are twelve members and a horse raising league is the object.

Jack Spellman and John Fortune engaged in a fight on East Washington street last evening, and both were arrested. Fortune received a slight cut in the arm from a knife in the hands of Spellman.

At 3 o'clock p. m. Thursday, at the city Hospital, Dr. T. H. Jameson will deliver a lecture on the management of the sick room. It is delivered to the young ladies of the Flower Mission School for Nurses.

The entertainment at the Indianapolis Seminary Friday evening, May 8, for the benefit of the South S. de Free Kindergarten, promises to be very enjoyable. An attractive programme, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, etc., has been arranged. Refreshments will be served. Tickets 20 cents; children 10 cents.

At a South Meridian street dance, late last night, an unknown man fired a revolver and caused no little consternation among the dancers. Nobody was injured, and the man who used the gun escaped before the arrival of the police.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS.

Opinion of Attorney General Hord Concerning Their Election.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Indianapolis, May 6 1886.

Hon. J. W. Holcombe, Superintendent of Public Instruction:

Sir—You submit to me this question: "Do Township Trustees alone elect a County Superintendent, or can Presidents of city and town School Boards vote for such an officer?"

The only statute on the subject of which I am aware is Sec. 4,424 of Revised Statutes of 1881, which expressly declares that "The Township Trustees of the several townships of each county shall meet at the office of the County Auditor of such county on the first Monday of June, 1873, and biennially thereafter, and appoint a County Superintendent."

It is my opinion that Township Trustees alone vote in the election of a County Superintendent, and the County Auditor has the casting vote in case of a tie, and the President of city and town School Boards can not participate in such election.

Respectfully,
FRANCIS T. HORD,
Attorney General.

AMUSEMENTS.

OLD WORLD GEM COMPANY AT THE GRAND.

This excellent combination continues to attract and please large audiences at the Grand Opera House, and every feature is excellently presented. Mme. Laurent is a clever change artist; Pat Feecey is witty and sings and dances well; Fitts and Webster are about the best of the musical comedies; Jagarine and Captain Engelbrecht do some thrilling work with swords and knives; the Herbert Brothers are the greatest of all acrobats, and Miss Marie Louisa is indeed the "pet of the dukes." She is an excellent singer, a clever comedienne, and as pretty as a peach. No one should fail to see this superb show. Last performance to night.

"LITTLE NUGGET" AT ENGLISH'S.

Good sized audiences seem to be the rule at English's this week as well as last. "The Little Nugget" combination give about as good a performance as could be asked for at the small price of admission of ten and twenty cents. The specialties are equal to any given by any combination on the road. "The School," "The Pirate Camp" and "The Trained Elephant" are great laugh makers. The company remain the balance of the week, giving everybody an opportunity to drive dull care away with a hearty laugh.

NOTE.

Matinee at the Zoo to day at 2 p. m.

Mr. S. Draper, of "Uncle Tom's" fame, is in town.

Thomas' Orchestra will be at English's Tuesday evening next.

The Museum is delighting large audiences all day long after 10 a. m., and at night until 10 p. m.

Secure your seats for the Thomas Concert at the box office of English's Opera House at once, as all indications point to a packed house.

Next week at the Grand Opera House we are to have the time honored play of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" by Mr. S. Draper's Mammoth Double Company. It will run all week, with daily matinees. The admission will be only 10 cents, with 10 cents extra for reserved seats.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Senator Benn is home from a three weeks' visit in Florida.
